Fanning the flame!

The lifeblood of Arde Lvcvs flows strongly through our Roman and Celtic veins, and in this year of 2021, with major health restrictions still in place as a result of the pandemic, we will enjoy this celebration with the same passion as when we began this great adventure two decades ago, with the aim of reviving and paying homage to our city, to our ancestors, and the customs that have defined us as a people for more than two thousand years.

This year will be a transitory edition, without the large-scale events it deserves, because health must always be our priority, although the city council and the associations that breathe life into Arde Lvcvs will be working just as hard, without risks, so that we can keep the spirit of this festival alive. The flame of our pride as a city must continue to burn. This is the same flame we did not want to put out in 2020, and which we will be fanning back to life this year, so that in 2022 it can burn stronger than ever, consolidating Lvgo at national and international level as a leading reference point in the spheres of heritage and tourism.

We invite you to take part, to dress up, to adorn your windows and balconies, to continue exploring our past, so that we can once again see the return to our streets this year of the camps, the theatre, the market, the weddings, the music, and the Roman legions and Celts marching side by side. But we have to pay special care, respecting the safety distances and being responsible, because protecting and caring for our traditions also entails taking care of ourselves and others.

We are very grateful for the enormous effort made by the associations who work all year to ensure the success of this historic festival, declared as an event of special tourism interest at Galician and national level, and so that it can progress towards being recognised as an international tourist event. Thanks to all of them for their dedication, and to all of the inhabitants of Lvgo for your involvement.

Let's continue working together to achieve even higher levels of excellence in the celebration once the situation makes it possible, which will be when our city once again opens its doors to the thousands of people who, year after year, come here to celebrate our past together with us.

Romans, Celts!
Once again, make Arde Lvcvs your very own festival, and keep its flame burning for another year, during these very special days.
